Masterstrokes

ON AN SUA LANDSCAPE

In the one hundred and fiftieth year after the canonization of Saint Angela Merici, we, the Class of 1957, dedicate to her Volume Six of the Crest.

All St. Ursula pupils, from kindergarten to the senior class, have known her spirit. Master artist that she was, she put the first strokes of light and truth on the masterpiece that is Ursuline education.

SAINT ANGELA MERICI—THE MASTER ARTIST 1807—1957

With a brush dipped in charity Saint Angela painted upon her canvas a homelike atmosphere, blending it with strong tones of intellectual leadership and refinement of manner.

For the Class of '57 the masterpiece is almost finished. Others, like Saint Angela, have worked on the landscape. The Seniors themselves have painted in the lights and shadows of the past four years. Only a few strokes remain for them . . . Class Day, Commencement . . . and the picture is complete.

1957
FOREGROUND

A senior shows the way to a year of rich experiences — intellectual, cultural, social, spiritual — varied hues that rub off the landscape of each senior class to appear in the unfinished paintings of the classes that follow.

Lloyd Altenau

Gay, persuasive, enthusiastic. . . her leadership in Catholic Action gave our landscape inspiration and color.

Lloyd Altenau

Mary Helen Beimesche

Reliable, gentle, active . . . our Marylike senior added shades of white and blue to the picture.

Mary Helen Beimesche

Joan Comello

Jovial, lively, agreeable . . . her specialties added gaiety and color to the annual Variety Show.

Joan Comello

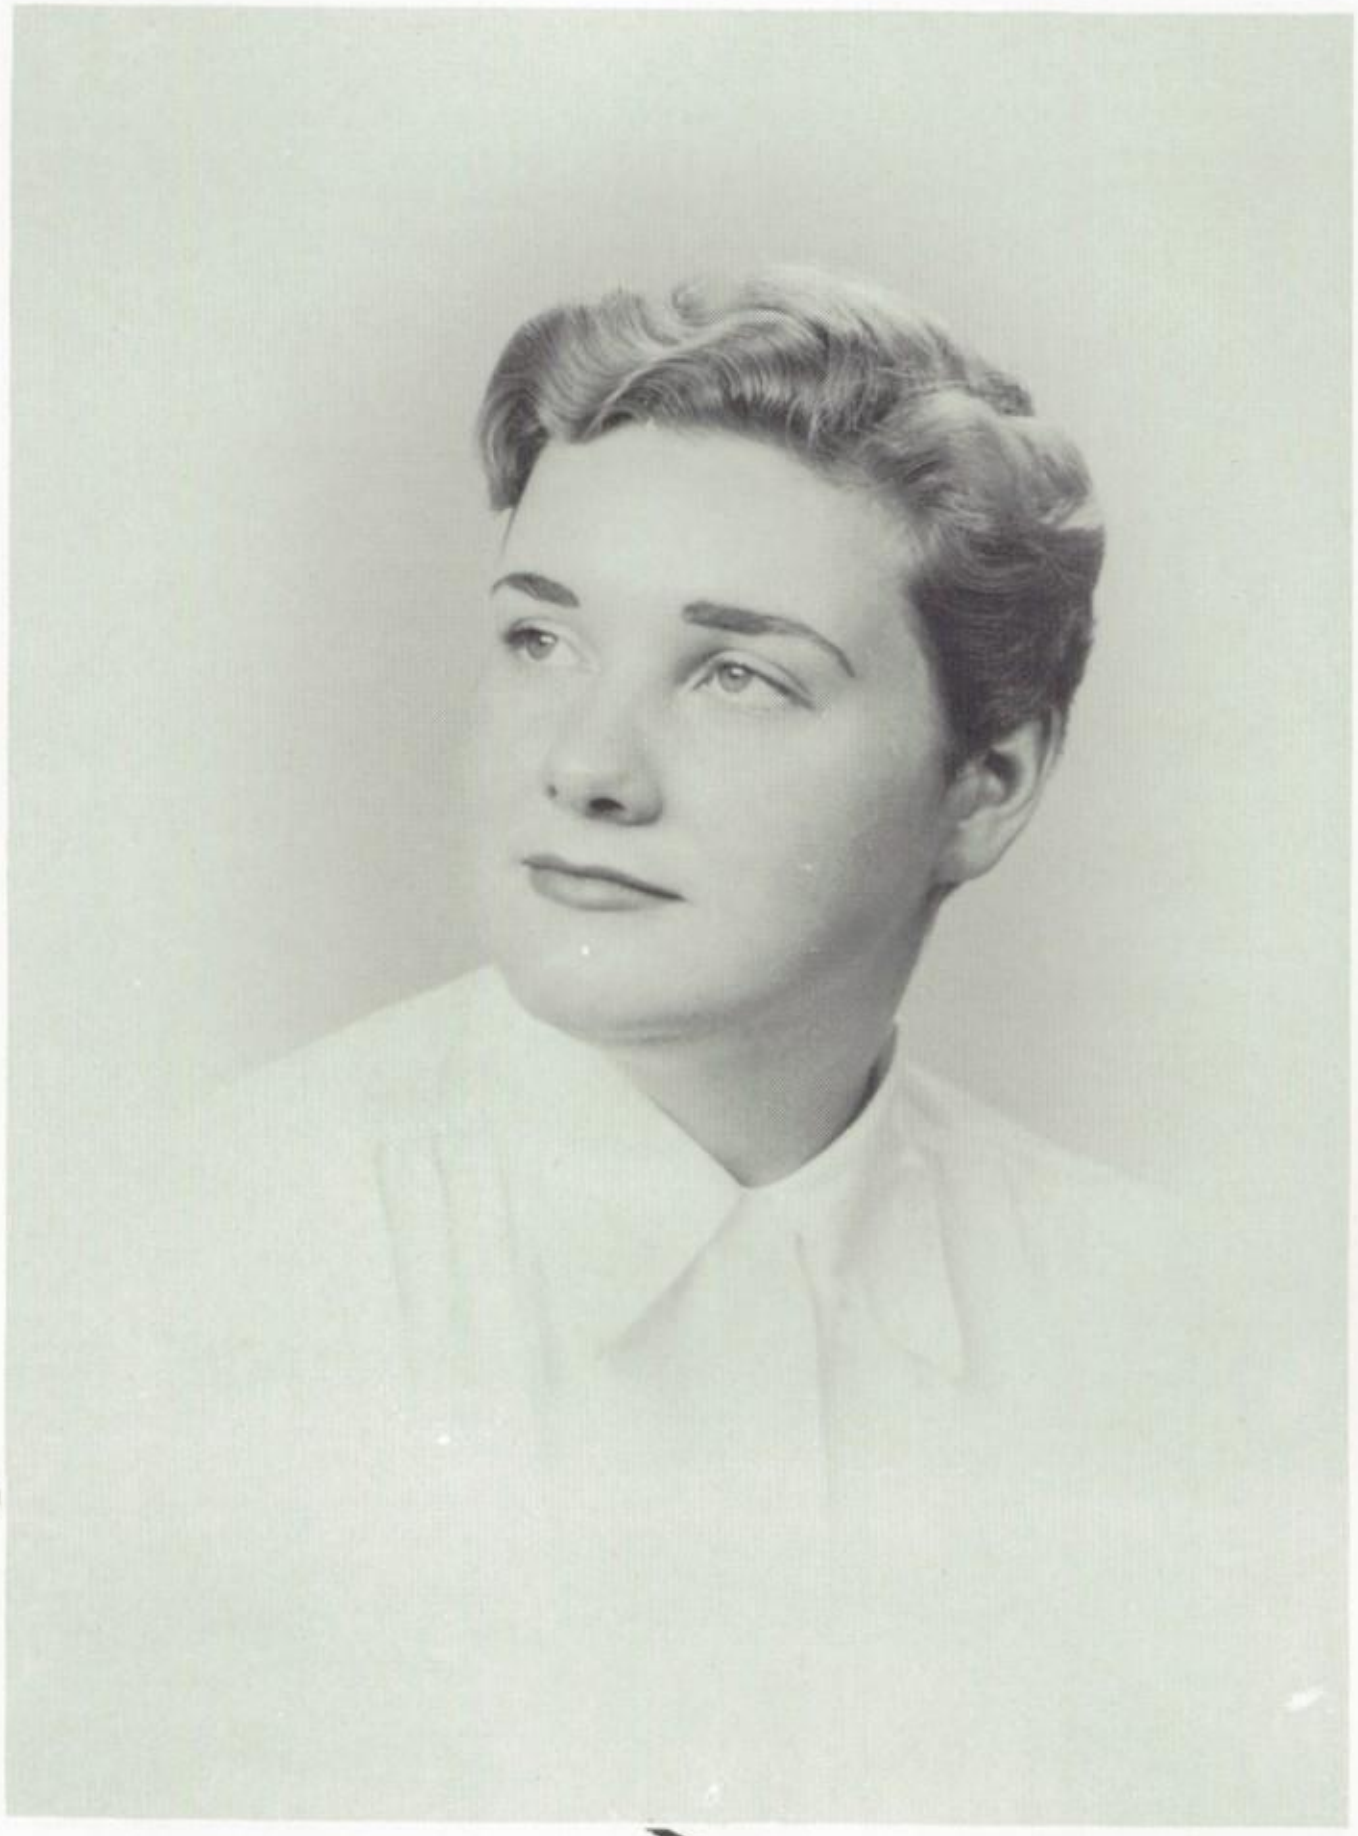
Patricia DiPuccio

Creative, artistic, industrious. . . vivacious Pat excelled in sports and "Ali Baba's Forty Thieves."

Pat DiPuccio

Barbara Fromme

Affable, considerate, bashful...our Red Cross representative starred as Sally in "Date for the Prom."



Barbara Fromme

Joyce Ganim

Competent, zealous, conscientious. . . as senior president, Joyce rang the school bell and got us to class on time.

Joyce Ganim

Mary Alice Graser

Faithful, generous, energetic. . . she dabbled in printer's ink as editor-in-chief of the 'Light' and 'Crest'.

Mary Alice Graser

Lois Grayson

Lively, sparkling, clever...our class expert on Ohio's law and government gleaned her knowledge "on the spot" at Girls' State in Columbus.

Lois Grayson

Anne Hannafin

Gracious, companionable, pretty...Anne read the Epiphany Gospel on Carol Night; her cream-colored convertible is a perfect setting for her bright, red, strawberry hair.

Anne Hannafin

Barbara Hauer

Sympathetic, helpful, gracious. . .as senior librarian and CSMC vice prefect, "Barb" was selected by the Light as "Girl of the Month."

Barbara Hauer

Carol Justes

Kind. soft-spoken, obliging...our faithful alto is photogenic and has one great, life-long passion—dogs!

Carol Justes

Carol Mitchell

Amiable, smiling, cheerful. . .Carol, with plans for O.L.C. and elementary teaching, will be the first of three loyal sisters to graduate from S.U.A.

Carol Mitchell

Toni Nicholas

Ingenious, peppy, practical...our GAA president is an all-round leader and an ardent Maronite booster.

Toni Nicholas

Betty Nunner

Agreeable, brown-eyed, petite. . .our classmate from Kentucky spent thirteen years at S.U.A.; as CSMC representative she collected more nickles for the missions than any other senior.

Betty A Nunner

Marilyn Orlando

Happy, dark-eyed cheery...she was part of a Christian Doctrine team which spent Sunday mornings giving instructions to children at the Convalescent Hospital.

Marilyn Orlando

Carol Schmidt

Graceful, intellectual, artistic...the class ballerina starred in every variety show, and was one of our tour experts on campaign issues for WCET's "Let's Talk Politics."

Carol Schmidt

Donna Schubeler

Blonde, versatile, vivacious...as an associate editor, "Enquirer" reporter, TV newscaster, and future nurse, Donna leaves many strokes upon our '57 landscape.

Donna Schubeler

Mary Jean Smith

Conscientious, musical, energetic. . . melodious soprano in Choral Club and Variety Show numbers, Mary Jean and her Ursuline aunt both share the same lovely name.

Mary Jean Smith

Alma Stallo

Poised, capable, wise. . .as CSMC prefect and writer of poetry, with outstanding dramatic ability and four television appearances, Alma proves that an "A" average and co-curricular activities go well together.

Alma Stallo

Carol Welling

Helpful, dependable, generous...first senior to display an engagement ring, Carol also led our volleyball team to school championship.

Carol Welling

Sister Mary Louise

Quiet, calm, glowing. . . Sister's vocation was a daily inspiration to the class of '57.

Sister Mary Louise

Our class presidents meet for a conference with Sister Rose Angela in the directress' office. They are Mary Teresa Berni, sophomore; Jo Ann Mettman, freshman B; Anne Helmick, freshman A; Christine Engelhardt, junior; and Joyce Ganim, senior.
